Wake Forest University Dance Company Presents

FACULTY & GUEST ARTIST CONCERT
FALL 2017

Scales Fine Arts Center
November 16-18 at 7:30pm
November 19 at 2pm
DIRECTOR’S NOTE

Welcome to the Fall Faculty Guest Artist Concert. The Wake Forest University Dance Company is committed to providing exciting dance experiences for its students and audiences, including work in contemporary, classical ballet, jazz and tap dance disciplines. We are a community of students, artists, scholars and craftspeople who come together to experience the art of dance. Unique to this concert this fall concert is Scale Model an outdoor site-specific dance piece made at and for Scales Fine Arts Center. Created in collaboration with students, the work playfully explores the body’s relationship to place, and how environment acts on and intermingles with our shared corporeal experience. Visiting guest artist Heather Maloy returns to wake to set GOTAN A fun, athletic and abstract work created to push the limits of the strong and versatile WFU dancers. The music has an intricate musicality and the choreography was created to explore and enhance the changing tones of its beautifully woven tapestry. Faculty members Brantly Shapiro and Chris Martin re-imagined excerpts from 1898 classical ballet Raymonda. Junior Desirae’ Starnes performs a solo Finding Peace originally performed in the 90’s by Lucas focuses on meditation and prayer. Closing our concert Tina Yarborough’s choreography to contemporary gospel artist Tye Tribbett’s If He Did It Before….Same GOD, capturing the songs powerful message and energy through choreographed movements. Hebrews 13:8 is sure to uplift and inspire the audience.

Special thanks to our dancers, faculty, guests and choreographers for sharing your time and talent. Thank you to all the support behind the scenes that help make this production a success, including our technical director, scene shop assistants, costuming staff, lighting designers, box office staff, stage manager, volunteer crew and ushers. We hope you enjoy the performance.

INFORMATION

In consideration of performers and other patrons please turn off your cell phone and electronic alarms and leave all paging devices at the Box Office. The use of laptops is prohibited in the theatre. Please refrain from eating or drinking in the theatre. Smoking is prohibited in the building. To be reached in an emergency, please leave your name and seat location at the Box Office. As always, please remember that the use of all cameras and recording devices is strictly PROHIBITED. Flash photography is a hazard to the performers and a distraction to the audience. If you would like to return your program at the end of the performance, collection baskets to return programs can be found at the theatre entrance; thank you for helping us with the university’s sustainability efforts.

GUEST ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Amy Love Beasley is a dance artist and educator. She is currently adjunct faculty in the dance programs at Wake Forest University and Elon University. Trained as a visual artist, she explores intersections of dance with experiments in drawing, video, and animation. Her work has been performed at Wake Forest University, Elon University, UNC-Greensboro, FSC-Jacksonville, the North Carolina Dance Festival, Art-o-Matic in Washington, DC and through Waxworks and at the Center for Performance Research, in Brooklyn, NY. She has had the good fortune of performing for many artists who inspire her, including John Gamble, Gerri Houlihan, Lauren Kearns, Niki Juralewicz, Christina Tsoules Soriano, BJ Sullivan, Sean Sullivan, and Jan Van Dyke.

Heather Maloy: A graduate of North Carolina School of the Arts (NCSA), Heather Maloy joined the North Carolina Dance Theatre (NCDT) at the age of 17 and began choreographing for them a year and a half later. She danced principal and soloist roles at NCDT for thirteen years, choreographing six pieces for them during that time, including "Couch Potatoes," which was part of their NY Joyce season in 2004. Maloy has created two premieres for the Chautauqua Ballet, three for the Nashville Ballet, and participated in Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet’s Choreoplan 2002. Last Spring, she placed third in the Ballet Nouveau 21st Century Choreographic Competition. Her choreography was performed at NCSA’s Alumni Performance Festival in Manteo, NC in 2007 and she created "Stranger" for their Spring Dance program in 2008. In 2003, Maloy moved to Asheville, NC, founding Terpsicorps Theatre of Dance where she is artistic director and resident choreographer. The company performs mainly in the summer, employing dancers from professional companies across the country.

FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

Jessie Laurita-Spanglet is an active teacher-artist-scholar and a Post-Graduate Teaching Fellow in Dance at Wake Forest University. Since graduating with an MFA from the University of Maryland in 2014, Jessie has had teaching and choreographic residencies at the University of the North Carolina School of the Arts, the University of Virginia, Davis and Elkins College, and the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. Under the direction of her colleague Christina Soriano, Jessie is currently at work on a new NIH-funded study looking at the effects of improvisational movement on people living with mild cognitive impairment. Jessie is a Stott certified Pilates teacher through Balance Pilates in Richmond VA, and holds a BFA in modern dance from the North Carolina School of the Arts.
Nina Maria Lucas is a Professor, Artistic Director of the company and Chair of the Department of Theatre and Dance. She received her Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) from The Ohio State University (OSU) in Dance Performance and her Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in Performance and Education from the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA). Her teaching credits include UCLA, Illinois State University, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, and North Carolina School of the Arts. Ms. Lucas is the recipient of the 2010 Co-recipient of the Alumni Association Award for Excellence in Advising, Third Annual Women of Color Appreciation Award in 2005, 2001 Reid-Doyle Award for Excellence in Teaching at Wake and the 2000 Excellence in Teaching of dance in the State of North Carolina from the North Carolina School of the Arts.

Chris Martin studied at the North Carolina School of the Arts. He went on to become a member of the American Ballet Theatre, the Washington Ballet and the Miami City Ballet, dancing the roles in both their classical and contemporary repertoire. Chris is as an Assistant Teaching Professor of the Practice teaching all levels of classical ballet.

Debbie Sayles received her B.F.A. in dance from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She received training at East Carolina and performed with the companies at both universities. Debbie joined the faculty at the Academy of Dance Arts, Inc. in 1983 and has trained and inspired thousands of dancers in her 30 years of teaching as well as being instrumental in developing the Tap program. She also teaches Tap at Wake Forest University as an adjunct professor. Debbie's versatility in teaching has included the pre-ballet program as well as Jazz. Debbie is mother to two daughters, Megan and Katie, who also attended the Academy.

Brantly Bright Shapiro trained at the San Francisco Ballet School under a Ford Foundation grant and subsequently joined the San Francisco Ballet. She was also a member of the Basler Stadt Theatre in Basil Switzerland, Pacific Northwest Ballet, and performed in film and video specials for the Swisse-Romande Radio-TV Network. While living in Texas, she received a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities. She has also taught in the University of Texas dance department in Austin, Texas and was director of the Dancentre School. Ms. Shapiro has taught widely throughout the United States and Europe. She received the 1996 North Carolina School of the Arts Teacher of the Year Award, and is a frequent guest teacher on the NCSA dance faculty. She currently teaches all the ballet classes for the Wake Forest University Community Ballet program and is a full-time member of the university’s ballet faculty.
Tina Yarborough Liggins a native of Durham, North Carolina received her BFA in Dance from UNC Greensboro and a MFA in Arts Management from Virginia Tech. Currently, she is an Assistant Professor and Theatre Manager at NC A&T State University and Adjunct Faculty at Wake Forest University. She has also taught at UNC Greensboro, Winston-Salem State University, Greensboro College and at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts Summer Intensive Program. She is trained in the areas of Jazz, Modern, African and Liturgical dance. In addition to teaching, Liggins is the founder of TLine Danz, a producing and performance organization in Greensboro, North Carolina. Her past experiences include the position of Artistic Director and Choreographer for Otésa Creative Arts Ensemble and Co-Director and Instructor for Arts Evangelica Christian Arts School. Other professional experiences include choreographing musicals such as Cats, The Color Purple, Chicago, Beauty and the Beast, Ain’t Misbehavin’, Hairspray, Once On This Island and dancing with Chuck Davis African American Dance Ensemble and John Gamble / Jan Van Dyke Modern Dance Company.

Love in Motion
A Comtemporary Dance Showcase

In a world with so much discord, we can find love in the most intriguing places. All it takes is just one person to bridge the gap of differences. Monet Beatty choose to blend and demonstrate her love through influence and artistry. Please join us in the celebration of Dance at the 2017-18 Dance Collective, "Love in Motion" a contemporary dance love affair, featuring Dance Collective All-Stars, MBDanceCo, Center of Performing Arts, Advance Dance, Institute of Divine Arts, and members of the Wake Forest Dance Company.
